Data Privacy Statement

Version: May 25th, 2018

Investcorp Investment Advisers LLC (“IIALLC”, “we”, “us”, and “our” and together with our affiliates “Investcorp”) has created this privacy statement to demonstrate our commitment to privacy. Your right to privacy and data security is a primary concern. This privacy statement sets out the basis on which any information we collect from you, or that is provided to us, will be processed by us.

Please find below further information regarding the data you provide us and your rights in relation to the provision of such data.

1. INFORMATION GATHERING AND USAGE

Why personal data is used

We intend to give you as much control as reasonably possible over your personal data (information that can be used to identify you, such as your name, email address, telephone numbers, postal address, credit card information, etc.). There are times when we may need to collect and process personal data from you in order to provide you with the services that you have requested from us. Set out below is a non-exhaustive list of the types of personal data we might collect from you and the purposes for which we would use it.

- Client onboarding, account opening, and maintenance: We collect information in relation to know your client (“KYC”) compliance checks prior to opening your account or effecting your investments to enable us to identify and verify the identity of prospective clients in accordance with anti-money laundering regulations. We also conduct KYC checks from time to time to ensure the information we hold on you is up-to-date. This may include your name, title, date of birth, passport copy, social security number, driving license (or other government identification documents), address, email, phone number, nationality, citizenship, marital status, tax details, board information (i.e., directorships), income, salary, source of funds, academic record (including degrees and schooling), licenses, and professional memberships.
- Providing services to you: We collect information to enable us to market and deliver existing and new services to you, provide you with investor reports about your portfolio of investments, etc. This may include bank details, account balance, transaction history, investing preferences, investment history, risk tolerance, and wire transfer instructions.

- Compliance with legal or regulatory obligations: We collect information in relation to compliance with our legal and regulatory reporting obligations. This may include executed share purchase agreements, transaction histories, certifications related to FATCA/CRS or other tax reporting requirements, etc.

We will only collect personal information from you when we need this information in order to provide a service to you. In such instances, failure to provide your personal data may mean that we are not able to provide services you requested.

Where we process your personal information for direct marketing purposes, please be aware that you may object to our processing your personal data in this way at any time. If you do so, we will log your objection, stop processing your data for direct marketing purposes, and we will not contact you again.

We do not perform any regular automated-decision activities, including profiling activities, where your personal data is processed by automated means.

We will only process your personal data if and to the extent applicable law provides a lawful basis for us to do so and in particular:

- i. if you have consented to us doing so;
- ii. if we need it to perform the contract we have entered into with you;
- iii. if we need it to comply with a legal obligation; or
- iv. if we (or a third party) have a legitimate interest which is not overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms. Such legitimate interests will be the provision of services by us, administrative or operational processes within Investcorp, and direct marketing.

With whom personal data may be shared

- Within Investcorp. We may share the personal data that you provide to us to other entities within Investcorp to the extent necessary for the purpose of providing services to you.
- To third parties. We may share the personal data that you provide to us to our service providers for the purpose of providing services to you. This may include the provision of your personal data to IT service providers, fund and other administrators, marketing advisors, legal and other professional advisors and other service providers we may deal with from time to time. We may also provide your personal data to any successor to our business. We are also regulated in various jurisdictions and have reporting obligations and other regulatory requirements that may require us to disclose your personal data to those regulators. Furthermore, in order to carry out our business activities, we are often required by our counterparties who perform their own KYC procedures to provide certain information to them relating to Investcorp's beneficial owners or the beneficial owners of the investments arranged by Investcorp.

We will not otherwise use, share, disseminate, publish or disclose your personal data (except as may be required in response to litigation, investigations or other legally required disclosures).

2. WHERE WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may transfer your personal data to, or store it in, a destination outside of the jurisdiction of the entity to which you provided it. This is because Investcorp is a global business, with operations located in various jurisdictions, which uses service providers based in a number of locations worldwide. In some cases, your personal data will be stored in or transferred to jurisdictions outside of the European Economic Area (“EEA”) (a third country), where data protection laws are not as stringent as the applicable laws under the EEA regime.

Where we have to transfer your personal data to third countries, we will use appropriate approved safeguards.

For further information please do not hesitate to contact us using the details below.

Period for which we store your personal data

We will store your personal data for only so long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes described above and in accordance with data retention periods prescribed by applicable laws and regulations.

3. YOUR RIGHTS

We rely on you to provide accurate, complete and current personal data to us.

Access. You may contact us at any time in order to request access to the personal information we hold about you. We will confirm whether we are processing your personal data, provide details of the categories of personal data concerned and the reasons for our processing. We can also provide you with a copy of your personal information on request.

Rectification. If the information we hold appears to be inaccurate we will not use it, and not allow others to use it, until it is verified. You can ask us to correct or complete your personal data by contacting us at any time. To the extent possible, we will inform anyone who has received your personal data of any corrections we make to it.

Restriction. In certain circumstances, it may be possible to require us to limit the way in which we process your personal information (i.e., require us to continue to store your personal data, but not otherwise process it without your consent). Such circumstances include:

- i. where you think the data we hold about you is inaccurate, processing can be restricted while it is being rectified;
- ii. where you object to our processing, (which is being carried out on the grounds that it is necessary in the public interest or for our legitimate interests) processing can be restricted while we determine whether such grounds override your interests;
- iii. where processing is unlawful but you oppose the erasure and request restriction of your data instead; and
- iv. where we no longer need the personal data but you require the data in order to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim, our processing can be restricted.

Erasure. You may ask to have the information on your account deleted or removed. We will try to do so promptly, and, to the extent possible, we will inform anyone who has received your personal information of your request. However, we must keep track of certain transaction information, such as past purchases and similar information, for legal compliance purposes, so we may not be able to fully delete your information in certain circumstances.

Receiving/transferring your personal data.

You may also ask us to send you the personal data we hold on you in an electronic, structured and user-friendly format, or you may ask us to send this data to another entity.

Object. Where we are processing your personal information without your consent to pursue our legitimate interests, you may object to us processing your personal data. In particular, where we are using your personal data to contact you for marketing purposes, you may object to such processing at any time.

Automated decision-making. You have the right to be informed of any automated decision-making, including profiling, used in connection with your personal data, and we will provide information about the logic we apply, as well as the significance and consequences of such processing.

Complaints. You may contact us at any time where you believe that we are in breach of data protection law or where you wish to make a complaint about or data processing. Furthermore, if you are located in the EEA, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant data protection supervisory authority in the country where you are based or any place in the EEA where you believe the infringement has occurred (or where you believe that we have not resolved an issue you have raised with us).

For any of the requests listed above, please contact us. We will make reasonable efforts to respond promptly and at the latest within one month. Our response to such requests may be limited to information under our direct control.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). However, if your request for access is excessive or unjustified, we may charge a reasonable fee.

4. SECURITY

Security measures

We limit access to personal data that we collect about you to our employees and third-party agents, who we reasonably believe need to have access to your information to provide you with the information or services you request from us. We have security measures in place to help protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. While we cannot guarantee that loss, misuse or alteration to data will not occur, we ensure that our systems adhere to market security standard so as to help safeguard against such occurrences.

Children's privacy protection

Investcorp does not target and its websites are not intended for children under the age of 16. Investcorp will not knowingly collect personal data from children, and will delete such data upon discovery. Where Investcorp requires personal data pertaining to children for the purpose of providing a service, the consent of an adult with parental responsibility for that child will be required.

5. OPTING OUT

If you do not wish to receive certain communications from us you may opt out by: (1) declining the service offered or (2) informing us that you no longer wish to receive such communications. We will comply with such requests unless such communications from us are required by law or do not require your consent under applicable laws. Your opting out may restrict our ability to provide you with the full extent of our services.
