Investcorp Holdings B.S.C. (c)

Corporate Governance Guidelines

Introduction

Corporate governance is an important focus of attention for both regulators and investors globally.

Investcorp Holdings B.S.C. (c) (“Investcorp” or the “Company”) has long been a strong proponent of good corporate governance, which Investcorp believes involves keeping business practices above reproach and thus retaining the trust and confidence of all of Investcorp’s stakeholders who enable Investcorp to operate, thrive and prosper.

The Bahrain Ministry of Industry and Commerce (“MOIC”), formerly the Bahrain Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Tourism, issued a Corporate Governance Code (the “Governance Code”), which became applicable to all joint stock companies incorporated in Bahrain on January 1, 2011 (as revised from time to time, including the revisions issued in September 2022).

These Corporate Governance Guidelines (“Guidelines”) have been adopted by the Board of Directors of Investcorp (the “Board”) and have taken into consideration guidance contained in the Governance Code and any other matters deemed appropriate by the Board.

These Guidelines follow the format of the Governance Code by setting out the Corporate Governance principles (the “Principles”) and then elaborating upon the Principles.

Principle 1: Investcorp Shall Be Headed By An Effective, Qualified And Expert Board

The Board's Composition

Pursuant to the Articles of the Company, the Board must consist of at least five (5) Directors and shall have no more than fifteen (15) members and include a mix of non-executive, executive and independent Directors.

The Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Board are independent and non-executive Directors, and more than half of the Directors are deemed to be independent and non-executive.

No Director shall hold a directorship in more than five (5) Public Joint Stock companies in the Kingdom of Bahrain, provided that such directorships shall not give rise to any conflict of interest.

Each Director is elected for a three-year term at an Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders ("OGM") after which time a new Director or an existing Director may be proposed for election or re-election, as appropriate, at a subsequent OGM.

Directors' Roles and Responsibilities

The Board's role is distinct from that of both the Shareholders of Investcorp, whose interests the Board represents, and the management of Investcorp, which the Board oversees.

The Board owes fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to Investcorp and the Shareholders of Investcorp.

In recognition of its duties and responsibilities, the Board has adopted the Charter of the Board of Directors of Investcorp (the "Board Charter") that is attached as Annex A to these Guidelines.

Having regard to the importance of each Director understanding his or her duties and responsibilities, the Chairman of the Board, assisted by the Corporate Secretary, or such other individual designated by the Chairman of the Board, shall review the Board's role and its duties and responsibilities with each newly elected Director.

In addition, Investcorp shall have a written appointment agreement with each Director that refers to the Director's powers, duties and responsibilities, as well as other matters relating to his or her appointment, including expected time commitments, any committee assignment and remuneration, and his or her access to independent professional advice when that is needed.

Chairman's Responsibilities and Duties

The Chairman of the Board is responsible for the leadership of the Board and for the efficient functioning of the Board.

The Chairman of the Board must ensure that all Directors receive an agenda, minutes of prior meetings and adequate background information in writing before each Board meeting and, when necessary, between Board meetings. All Directors must receive the same Board information.

The Chairman of the Board may hold meetings with non-executive and independent Directors, without the attendance of any executives, to take their views on matters relating to Investcorp's activity as he sees fit.

The Corporate Secretary

The Corporate Secretary shall be appointed or removed by a resolution from the Board and may be selected from amongst the members of the Board or outside of the Board.

Board meeting, decisions and recommendations

The Board shall convene meetings on a periodic and regular basis and shall meet no less than four (4) times in each financial year.

Any decisions of the Board shall be taken by a majority vote of the Directors present, in the event of a tie the Chairman will have the casting vote.

Subject to the receipt of timely information, a primary requirement of a Director's duty of care is that the Director study the materials provided to Directors in advance of the Board meeting and the meeting of any Committee on which the Director serves and prepares to contribute constructively in the deliberations of the Board and any such Committee.

All Directors shall receive the same information and shall bear the legal responsibility for follow up, ensure they receive adequate and appropriate information, and study it carefully.

The Board may hold its meetings in person or by telephone or via audio-visual communication systems and accept any Director's remote participation in the deliberation of its meetings, subject to the provisions in the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law.

The Board may adopt any decisions by circulation approved by a majority of the Directors. The Board will be informed of any resolutions passed by circulation at the following meeting thereof.

It is not permissible for a Director to attend a meeting, or to vote at such meeting, by proxy.

Director independence

The Board shall be comprised of individuals who have the competence and independence to be able to demonstrate judiciousness, experience, objectivity and impartiality in looking in to the Company's affairs to ensure complete independence of the Executive Management and key Shareholders.

No Director or small group of Directors must be allowed to dominate the decision-making and recommendation process of the Board, nor shall any Director have absolute power and authority over the decision-making process.

The duty of loyalty requires a Director to exercise the Director's powers in the best interests of Investcorp and Investcorp's Shareholders and not in the Director's own interests or in the interests of other persons (including family members) or organizations. Each Director must consider himself or herself as a representative of all Investcorp Shareholders.

The Board will review on an annual basis the independence of each Director based upon the criteria specified by the Governance Code, the interests disclosed by them in their annual conflict of interests' questionnaires and his/her conduct.

Directors Accessibility to External Consulting Opinions

As stated in the Board Charter, each Director shall have access to the Corporate Secretary of Investcorp, who has responsibility for reporting to the Directors on Board procedures.

Each Director also will have access to independent legal or other professional advice at Investcorp's expense whenever he/she judges this necessary to discharge his/her responsibilities as a Director and this must be in accordance with Investcorp's internal policies and procedures.

Such access to legal or other professional advice will be arranged by the Corporate Secretary upon the request of any Director.

If a Director has serious concerns which cannot be resolved at a meeting of the Board relating to the management of Investcorp or a proposed action, that Director should consider seeking independent advice and should ensure that those concerns are recorded in the Board meeting minutes and that any dissent from a Board action is noted or delivered in writing.

Should a non-executive Director have serious concerns of any matter that may have a material impact on the Company, he/she shall provide a written statement to the Chairman which will then be circulated to the Board.

Communications Between Directors and Executive Management

The Board shall encourage the reporting at Board meetings by relevant members of Executive Management, who by reason of responsibilities or succession, the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer believes should have exposure to the Directors.

Non-Executive Directors may have free access to Executive Management through either the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer or the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee.

Committees of the Board

Acting in accordance with Investcorp's Articles of Association, the Board has appointed the following Standing Committees: (i) the Audit and Risk Committee, (ii) the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and (iii) the Corporate Governance Committee. The Terms of Reference of these Committees are attached as Annex B, Annex C, and Annex D, respectively, to these Guidelines.

All Standing Committees keep comprehensive minutes of their discussions and meet regularly to fulfil their mandates.

The Corporate Secretary acts as Secretary to each Standing Committee.

These Standing Committees operate with authority delegated by the Board in accordance with their respective Terms of Reference. However, the Board may not delegate its ultimate decision-making responsibility.

Evaluation of the Board and its Committees

The Corporate Governance Committee, pursuant to its Terms of Reference, shall conduct an evaluation of its performance and the performance of each Committee, each Director, and the Board as a whole, at least annually.

The results of such evaluations will be reported to the Shareholders at the OGM held each year.

The Corporate Governance Committee may utilise the assistance of an external expert, if and to the extent deemed appropriate by the Corporate Governance Committee.

Principle 2: Investcorp's Directors And Officers Shall Have Full Loyalty To Investcorp

The mission of Investcorp is to be the preferred global alternative asset manager for its clients based on attractive performance and distinguished customer service while generating superior returns to Shareholders.

The fulfilment of that mission requires Investcorp to conduct its business activities and transactions with complete honesty and total integrity in accordance with the highest moral, ethical and legal standards.

Each of Investcorp's Board members and each other Investcorp employee owes a duty of loyalty to Investcorp and its shareholders. Directors are personally accountable to Investcorp and the Shareholders if they violate this duty of loyalty, and Directors can be personally sued for such violations.

Having regard to Investcorp's mission and this duty of loyalty, the Board has approved the Code of Conduct (the "Code of Conduct") of Investcorp and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Investcorp Group") that sets forth standards of conduct that apply to Directors and all of Investcorp's employees. It demands that all Directors, officers and employees conduct their business activities with absolute propriety and it affirms Investcorp's commitment to the highest moral, legal and ethical standards of conduct.

Acting in accordance with the duty of loyalty, each Director, officer, and all other Investcorp employees, must avoid transactions or situations in which their personal interests actually conflict with, or have the appearance of conflicting with, those of Investcorp, its Shareholders and its clients. Directors or other Covered Persons (as defined below) who have a material conflict of interest in any transaction which is the subject of any discussions or decision-making by the Board must abstain from participating in and attending any such meetings in which such discussions are held or decisions are made.

In furtherance of this duty, the Board has adopted Conflicts of Interest Policies and Procedures that apply to Directors of Investcorp Group entities, each Investcorp Group employee at the level of Managing Director ("Senior Management") and at a less senior level who is in charge of performing a Controlled Function. The Controlled Functions are (a) financial controls, (b) internal audit, (c) compliance and (d) risk management and the Code of Conduct enumerates several activities that Investcorp Group employees are prohibited from engaging in.

Each Director of Investcorp, each member of Senior Management and each member of a Controlled Function is considered a "Covered Person".

In addition, conflicts of interest questionnaires are completed by Directors of Investcorp Group entities and other Covered Persons at least annually in a further effort to identify existing or potential Covered Person conflicts of interest.

The Board has also adopted an anti-nepotism policy prohibiting any person being hired by any member of the Investcorp Group solely on the basis that such person is related to any of Investcorp's Directors or officers and any such person who is hired must be qualified for the relevant position.

Consistent with the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law, it is the policy of the Board to submit any affiliation by a Director with an entity engaged in a business that is competitive with Investcorp's business to the Shareholders for approval each year at the OGM. In addition, any abstention from voting motivated by a conflict of interest, and the authorization of any contract or transaction involving a conflict of interest, shall also be appropriately disclosed to the Shareholders.

Principle 3: The Board Must Have Rigorous Controls For Financial Audit And Reporting, Internal Control And Compliance With Law.

As noted above, the Board has established an Audit and Risk Committee ("ARC"), and its Terms of Reference are attached as Annex B to these Guidelines.

The ARC must consist of at least three Directors and at least one of the members must be an independent Director, and the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer must not be a member of the ARC. The Chairman of the ARC shall be an independent Director.

As part of the process of discharging its responsibilities in relation to overseeing Investcorp's systems and controls, risk management and compliance frameworks, the ARC should receive reports from the Internal Audit Department, Risk Department, and Compliance Department at every meeting of the ARC unless otherwise approved by the ARC.

The Board has adopted Whistleblowing Procedures to encourage the disclosure of genuine concerns regarding potential wrongdoing by Investcorp or its employees, including financial fraud or other actions that raise questions regarding the integrity of Investcorp's financial statements or its accounting, auditing, internal control and reporting practices, and to ensure that potential issues are promptly and properly investigated and addressed. The Whistleblowing Procedures are available to all employees on the Investcorp intranet. In addition, Investcorp has engaged the services of a third party to operate a Whistleblower Hotline Service to receive whistleblower reports.

To encourage management accountability for Investcorp's financial statements and as required, the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer must state in writing to the ARC and to the Board as a whole that Investcorp's annual and interim financial statements present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of Investcorp's financial condition and results of operations in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Principle 4: Investcorp Must Have Effective Procedures For Appointment, Training And Evaluation Of The Directors.

Nomination Committee

The Board has delegated to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) authority to act as the Nominating Committee of the Board, with responsibility to, among other things, identify persons qualified to become Directors, as well as senior executive officers of Investcorp. The details regarding NRC’s responsibilities are set forth in the NRC Terms of Reference attached as Annex C to these Guidelines.

The NRC shall include independent Directors and non-independent Directors, the majority of which must be independent. The Chairman of the NRC shall be an independent director.

Any Directors’ nominations proposed to the Shareholders for election or re-election shall be accompanied by a recommendation of the Board and shall include the following information:

- i. personal details, academic and professional qualifications;
- ii. other board memberships held;
- iii. details of other positions that involve significant time commitments; and
- iv. details of the relationship between the candidate and the Company and between the candidate and other Directors; and
- v. any other information preserved in Principle 4: Second (a) of the Governance Code.

When proposing a nomination for the re-election of any Director, the Chairman shall confirm, following a performance evaluation, that the Director’s performance continues to be effective and he/she continues to demonstrate a clear commitment to the role.

When it is proposed that a Director be re-elected to the Board for any term beyond six years (e.g., two three-year terms) the Director shall be subject to particularly rigorous review and the NRC shall take into account the need for progressive refreshing of the Board.

Induction and Training of Directors

Each new Director must be provided with a formal and tailored induction, based upon the new Director’s knowledge of Investcorp. Unless the Director already possesses detailed knowledge relating to Investcorp, the induction should include, among other matters, meetings with senior management, visits to Investcorp’s office in Bahrain and presentations regarding strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, compliance programs, and information about Investcorp’s internal and external auditors and legal counsel.

The Chairman of the Board, assisted by the Corporate Secretary, or any other individual designated by the Chairman of the Board, should review the Board’s role and duties with that person, particularly covering legal and regulatory requirements and these Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The Board has determined that the Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for developing induction programs for new Directors and for developing education activities for the Directors, which is in line with its Terms of Reference.

Principle 5: Investcorp Must Remunerate Directors And Senior Officers Fairly And Responsibly

Remuneration Committee

The Board has delegated to the NRC authority to act as the Remuneration Committee of the Board, with responsibility, among other matters, to (i) make recommendations to the Board regarding remuneration policies and amounts for each Director and specific senior executives and (ii) recommend to the Board, Director remuneration based upon attendance and performance and in accordance with Article 188 of the Commercial Companies Law.

As stated above the NRC shall include independent Directors and non-independent Directors, the majority of which must be independent. The Chairman of the NRC shall be an independent director.

The details regarding NRC's responsibilities are set forth in the NRC Terms of References attached as Annex C to these Guidelines.

Remuneration Standards

Remuneration of Directors and officers must be sufficient enough to attract, retain and motivate persons of the quality required to operate Investcorp's business successfully, but shall avoid paying more than is necessary for that purpose.

Remuneration for non-executive Directors must not include performance-related elements such as grants of shares, share options or other deferred share-related incentive schemes.

The total amount of remuneration payable to the Board of Directors must be capped in line with Article 188 of the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law.

It is the policy of Investcorp to structure the remuneration of senior officers as well as other professional employees in a manner designed to ensure that their interests are aligned with the interests of Investcorp's Shareholders.

Investcorp's Remuneration Policies, and any changes thereto, shall be approved by the Shareholders of Investcorp and are effectuated pursuant to a Board-approved Remuneration Procedures Manual.

Principle 6: The Board Must Establish A Clear And Efficient Management Structure For Investcorp And Define The Job Titles, Powers, Roles And Responsibilities.

Establishment of Management Structure

The Board must appoint at a minimum the following members of senior management:

- Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
- Chief Financial Officer
- Head of Internal Audit
- Corporate Secretary

as well as such other officers as the Board considers appropriate.

Investcorp's By-laws, attached as Annex E to these Guidelines, prescribe the authorities, duties and internal reporting responsibilities of each of the members of senior management listed above as well as other members of senior management appointed by the Board.

Investcorp's By-laws are overseen and approved by the CGC rather than the Nominating Committee as required by the Governance Code on the basis that this is in line with the CGC's mandate to oversee Investcorp's implementation of the Governance Code.

Investcorp has adopted a succession plan which, among other members of senior management, reflects a strategy for selecting a successor to the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management. This succession plan is reviewed annually by the NRC.

Internal Audit

Investcorp has established an effective internal audit function which provides an independent and objective assurance to the Board and senior management on the quality and effectiveness of Investcorp's internal controls, risk management and governance systems and processes. The Head of Internal Audit reports their views, findings and conclusions to the ARC at quarterly meetings, thereby assisting the Board to oversee senior management.

The Internal Audit function is independent of all functions including compliance, risk management and financial controls and has sufficient standing and authority within Investcorp. The Head of Internal Audit reports functionally to ARC and administratively to the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. It is to be noted that the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer has delegated certain of his responsibilities to the Chief Operating Officer ("COO") on the basis that this is more efficient and administratively in line with the responsibilities of the COO.

Risk Management

Investcorp must establish a sound risk management framework commensurate with its size, complexity and risk profile which incorporates a risk management function which is independent of the individual business.

The Head of Risk Management who serves as the Chief Risk Officer reports functionally to the ARC, which acts as the Board's risk committee and administratively to the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The Head of Risk Management reports their views and any issues to the ARC at quarterly meetings.

Principle 7: Investcorp Must Communicate With Shareholders, Encourage Their Participation, And Respect Their Rights.

It is the policy of Investcorp to conduct Shareholders' meetings in accordance with the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law and its Implementing Regulation. In organising such meetings Investcorp observes the following:

- Notices of meetings must be honest, accurate and not misleading;
- Meetings must be held during normal business hours and at a place convenient for the greatest number of Shareholders to attend in person if they so wish;
- Meetings may be conducted in a virtual setting using an appropriate hosting platform compatible with the requirements of the Bahrain Commercial Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations;
- Notice of meetings must encourage Shareholders to attend Shareholder meetings and, if not possible, to participate by proxy and must refer to procedures for appointing a proxy and for directing the proxy how to vote on a particular resolution. The proxy form must be attached to the notice of meetings and list the agenda items and must specify the vote (such as "yes", "no" or "abstain");
- Notices of meetings must ensure that all material information and documentation is provided to Shareholders on each agenda item;
- The Board must propose a separate resolution at any meeting on each substantially separate issue so that unrelated issues are not bundled together;
- The minutes of the meeting must be made available to Shareholders upon request and shall be sent to the MOIC within fifteen (15) days of the meeting; and
- Disclosure of all material facts must be made to the Shareholders by the Chairman of the Board prior to any vote by the Shareholders.

All Directors should seek to attend and be available to answer questions from Shareholders at any Shareholder meeting. The Chairman of the Board and the Chairmen of the Executive Committees should also seek to be available to answer appropriate questions regarding matters within their respective Committee's responsibility, it being understood that confidential and proprietary business information may be kept confidential.

Investcorp's external auditors should attend the OGM and be available to answer Shareholders' questions concerning the conduct and conclusions of the audit.

The Chairman and other Directors (as appropriate) shall maintain ongoing personal contact with key Shareholders to solicit their views and understand their concerns. The Chairman shall ensure that the views of Shareholders are communicated to the Board as a whole. The Chairman shall discuss governance and strategy with key Shareholders.

The Board shall seek to encourage Shareholders, particularly institutional investors, to help in evaluating Investcorp's corporate governance.

Principle 8: Investcorp Must Disclose Its Corporate Governance.

These Guidelines must be published on the Investcorp website.

At each OGM, the Board must report to the Shareholders on Investcorp's compliance with these Guidelines and explain the extent, if any, to which the Board has varied from the Guidelines or believes that variance or non-compliance was justified.

The Board must also report at each OGM on the corporate governance matters listed in Appendix 5 to the Governance Code.

Investcorp's Corporate Governance Officer shall undertake the tasks of verifying Investcorp's compliance with the corporate governance rules, laws, regulations and decisions issued to implement them. The Corporate Governance Officer shall coordinate with the Corporate Governance Committee in relation to all corporate governance matters, follow up and coordinate with the concerned department on the corporate governance matters.

Principle 10: Investcorp's Board Shall Ensure The Integrity Of The Financial Statements Submitted To Shareholders Through Appointment Of External Auditors.

Selection of External Auditor

The OGM shall appoint one or more auditors for the Company and determine their fees upon the proposal of the Board, while taking into consideration the requirements set out in Principle 10 of the Governance Code.

Obligations of External Auditor

Investcorp's external auditor shall observe the disclosure obligations and audit principles set out in Principle 10 of the Governance Code.

Principle 11: Investcorp Shall Seek Through Social Responsibility To Exercise Its Role As A Good Citizen.

The Board has adopted a Responsible Investment Policy to deal with the requirements of social responsibility.

Investcorp shall provide, in its annual report, a report on corporate social responsibility activities. The report shall explain these activities and the amounts spent thereon and measure their impact and sustainability.

Investcorp's Executive Management shall develop an annual strategy or plan to implement the corporate social responsibility philosophy, policies and principles towards the community.
